IPO Statement

This statement is to announce the formation of BoboCo Medical Technologies, Inc.(BMT). BoboCo Medical Tech. will provide useful products for the dispensation of medicines. These products will help to alleviate the potentially hazardous problems of over-medication and over dosage due to human error. These affordable, automated home systems will allow users to ensure that they have taken the proper amount of medicine the right number of times per day. BoboCo Medical Tech. will do well in the market by appealing to individuals concerned with the well-being of their parents, grandparents and loved ones, as well as the insurance companies who are financially responsible for those patients receiving multiple medications.
